Our own prospects for the remainder of the curren' conson of 1866.7 are not cheering. The dollar, in which our transactions are carried on, has risen to such a high value, as compared with the native coin, the boo, as to have passed the point of intrinsic equality. The evil of a double currency is low strikingly apparent, for our native customers he wing bought goods to arrive or otherwise contracted for them at a time when dollars were much theaper, decline to take delivery now, when the value of the win in the native money has of ar passed the point a which they had the base of their calculations. The maine merchants being

The number merchants bring anable to accept the idea of submitting to loss, and foreigners, by reason of the tot, great competition in our small market, fearing to oken their customers by competing delivery or commercing bargain money, trade in imports is brought nearly to a stand still. A low sterling crchange, a growing scarcity of good tilk and extravagant competition among buyers who hold discretionary orders, keep increasing the price of the staple just at the Prired when, from deterioration in quality, it might be expected to decline. Unfavorable advices from America of intime to contract operations in tea, and altogether, what wish the losses and inconvenience and interested about the opening of Geaka, the present is net anly severely fell, but there is not too strongly impress transcriptions in the case of the appointed time. The step has been determined on, and, whatever its consequences, will be taken. The French Minister is believed to have given up what he has found to be a uncleas apposition, and is suggested to be now preparing to make the best of his position there when loaks shall be opened. The war in the south will not be recomed this spring, fiscal motice to that effect having been made to the haimon friendly to or dependant on the Shogoon, hosis is thus left the presence of the state of the same friendly to or dependant on the Shogoon, hosis is thus left the present of the same friendly to the war, with a large accession of territory and the wastige of successful resistance to the Jedda chieftain. The cassolidation of the Japanese policy under European influence and advice, the resumption of the inchest power of his office by the Mikado, or the establishment of a confederation of Baimlos, are questions which must be left for solution to time. At present, so har as we are concerned, it is evident that every Daimio with whom we have come in contact shows a more friendly disposition towards us than the Bhogoon, a demeanor imitated by his people. Witness the reception gives to Sir Harry Parkes at Kagosima and elsewhere, and lately to Admiral King, is the Inland Sa.

The increase of the settlement of Yokohama and the superamnee constantly in our streets of numbers of men apparently without estensible means of irvelihood, and, unless ther looks greatly belie them, belonging to the "dengerous" classes, has induced us to revive the question of municipal government. For the third mail in succession we have to announce the death of one of our small community. Mr. Wood-there Clarkee Clarkee died after a very low days' liness on the morning of the 6th instant. He was one of the cid residents of Yokohama, and lived through all the trying and anxious times of our first settlement here. It is name will be remembered in connection with that of Tr. Richardson, one of the victims to foreign prejudice against foreigners, he having accompanied that gentleman with Mr. Marshall and Mrs. Borrodaile on the day when, meeting on the Tokaido the train of this matter than the former gentleman lost his life and both the others were severely wounded. From that wound Tr. Clarke was thought never to have thoroughly recovered, his whole nervous system was shaken, and it to tobe feared that his untimely death may, indirectly, be incod to this cause. On the 7th his funeral took place, and it will be gratifying to his friends in China and Europe to learn that both corps of volunteers, of the grave with every mark of respect.

The Markets.

Yokonama, March 16, 1867.

The high value of the dollar, relatively to native coin, which has reashed a point hitherto unattamed, has seriously checked operations in imports, although in many staple articles a disposition has been shown to meet purchasers. Gray shirtings show a decline, which may also be said of camiets, of which (8 S) considerable sailes are reported at $17. The demand for cloth may be considered as having ceased. Cotton, sugar and rice continued in demand. The price of the former article has sightly advanced, but large arrivals of sugar have had the effect of weakening the market for this article, a tendency which we must be prepared to see increasing as the large supplies contracted for come to hand. At the moment of writing business is entirely suspended, another fire having occurred the night before last in the mative town, which has consumed about forty houses, including a sort of exchange room.

Of exports we report:—Silk,—The firmness shown by dealers, which we noticed last mail, has increased in proportion with the competition of buyers, and a further advance of from $10 to $20 per picul has been established on all the sorts to request. The very low rate of sterling exchange has naturally assisted the upward tendency of prices. Arrivals have been easnly, not ex-

David Recron, who saits for the East in July. Upwards of one hundred coagregations were represented. Among the prominent elegymen and laymen present ways Rev. D. J. R. McLeod, of this city; Rev. E. G. Wiley, Dannesburg, N. Y., Rev. James Scott, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., Rev. W. J. McBougal, Ryegate, Vt., Rev. W. P. Shaw, St. Lawrence county, N. Y.; Rev. W. H. Reid, West Barnett, Yt., Rev. Stewart, Philadelphia; John Mayne, St. Lawrence county; John Stevenson, Pitzsburg; Samuel Dalass, Codarville, Ohio, and Moses Shirre, of Chicage.

Rev. Dr. McMasters, of Primeston, Indiana, was chosen Moderator. After discussing the question as to the ratio of representation that should be awarded the Freshyteries, the Synod proceeded to the election of officers for the office of Moderator—Rev. Dr. Brattor augustomous vote for the position. Rev. Dr. McLeod and Scott were then elected secretaries by a wice case vote, after which the Synod adjourned till three olicek in the afternoon.

At the afternoon session routine toxiness was transacted, and the Syned adjourned to meet again the morning.

ROCHESTER, May 16, 1867. the United States, New School, assembled for its annual session in this city to-day. Delegates began to arrive troductory services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Henry Allebon, of St. Louis. A prayer was offered up by Rev. Dr. S. B. Canfield, of Syracuse, and the annual sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Hopkins, of Auburn, the Apostles. The speaker began by giving a sketch of the many schisms which have, from time to time, taken place in the christian churches. Nine-tenths of the Church's entire force had been expended in contention. No wonder that, with a Church composed of a hundred distinct sects, men should be inclined to keep out of the heuse of worship. He did not refer to those controversies by which the Church had been developed, but the minor discussions, in which it had been asserted that men should not only agree in creed, but in metaphysical convictions. He advised a strong adherence to the work of denominational advancement, but deprecated anything which should be done in the spirit of sectarina-ism. The subject of church unification next eugaged the speaker's attention. The tendency towards union in the great Presbyterian body throughout Europe and America is now too apparent to escape notice. Presbyterianism, like the universe, embodies two antagonistic principles—a policy which requires unity and a theology which honors the right of private judgment. During the years of separation the two bodies have been steadily growing together. He spoke in high terms of praise of Apostles. The speaker began by giving a sketch of the Rev. Dr. Hopkins.

The report of the Committee of Arrangements was read and adopted.

The Presbyterian General Assembly met again at three o'clock P. M., and elected Rev. Henry A. Nelson, of St. Louis, Moderator.

Mr. Nelson took the chair and made a brief address.

Rev. Aivin Cooper and Wm. S. Taylor were chosen temporary clerks.

The Treasurer reported $112 on hand.

The re-union question has been made the first order for Priday morning.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT. The Constitutionality of the Legal Tender

Mat 16.—Thompson & Thompson w. Riggs & Co.— The plaintiffs in this case claimed to have made special its in gold with the defendants prior to the Legal Tender act. Subsequent to its passage the defendants declined to pay in kind, but made tender of Treasury show on the trial a special contract to pay in gold, evidence was offered of an arrangement made generally in the District of Columbia, where the action was brought, between depositors and their bankers, at the time gold commenced rising to a premium, by which deposits were to be pard in kind. This evidence was excluded, and the Legal Tender act being held constitutional, judgment was given for the defendants. The cause flually came here.

Mr. Justice Clifford now read the opinion of the Court, affirming the judgment below, holding that the evidence offered was properly excluded, as the judgment below was that the Legal Tender act was constitutional.

This affirmance is equivalent to a direct fluding in the case by this Court to that effect, although the question is not discussed further than to say that the deposit was payable in legal money of the United Stales, meaning thereby Treasury notes, which were tendered by the defendants.

Texas Directly Recognized as a State in the Union.

The State of Texas on White et. al.—The State of Texas sought an injunction to restrain certain parties who purchased government bonds, taken from her Treasury at the outbreak of the war by the rebel au-ultimate fee of the plaintiffs in certain lands of the Seneca Indians within her borders. Some years since the Seneca Nation sold to Fellows and a company truntee, since deceased, the interest described in these lands, and the State takes the view that the interest, as conveyed, is taxable. The further facts were recently stated in these reports. Mr. Justice Nelson now read the opinion of the Court, reversing the judgment of the Court of Appeals of the State sustaining the right to tax. The view taken is that lands in the actual possession and occupancy of Indians, under treates with the United States, are exempt from taxation by the States wherein located, notwithstanding such aless by them.

At anthusianic republican meeting was held last aght at Hampton. Over one thousand colored persons and many whites were present—among the latter a number of the principal residents of the place. The addresses of both the white and colored speakers were secrived with applause. Dr. E. R. Carey presided, and which slavery has left the negroes of the South, and urged the importance of moral and mensal improvement as a means of elevating them to the position of freemen. He gave excellent advice to he colored auditors, and was frequently interrupted by bolsterous demonstrations of approval.

The meeting was also addressed by Charles H. Porter, of Norfolk, and others; and it was bear midnight when the audience dispersed with cheeks for the republican party. The town of Hampton is a growing village and is becoming of considerable importance. The influx of Northern men since the town was destroyed by General Magrader has built it up again, and the main street is now thronged with stores which do an extensive traffic with the surrounding country.

The context for Congressional honors in the district promises to assume very lively proportions. Several republican candidates for Congress have been named already.
